

OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

Christianity in Turkey. THE SECTS. It is painful to have the cherished fancies of a life-time dispelled by contact with stern facts. We had indulged the hope that the Eastern Churches were in reality better than represented; that, to say the least, the Christian communities were greatly superior to their infidel neighbors. In some respects they unquestionably are. The Christians are much shrewder as a class—are more intelligent, better educated, and, as a consequence, more thrifty. They are much better tradesmen than the Turks, and are increasing rapidly in wealth; while the Turk, with all the superiority of his political position, is growing poorer and poorer. But in respect to real morality, to say nothing of a genuine and spiritual religion, the native Christians can hardly be judged too severely. Said a candid Bulgarian merchant to one of our missionaries: "We cannot become Protestants, you are so strict; in this country we must lie and cheat, to do business." The pompous ceremonies and the gaudy decorations of the churches, with their images and pictures, together with the corrupt practices of many even of the higher clergy, produce anything but a favorable impression of Christianity upon the minds of the Mohammedans, while the mutual distrust and enmity of the different sects are perpetual scandal. Much the larger portion of the Christian subjects of the Sultan are attached to the Greek Church, and are under the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the Patriarch of Constantinople. The clergy of this Church combine ignorance and bigotry to a degree which hardly admits of rivalry. The Armenians are a considerable element, and are possessed of some intelligence and wealth. Many of them are engaged in commerce in the large towns of Asia Minor and European Turkey. The Maronites are the Christian peasantry of Lebanon, and are connected with the Latin Church—a connection prized more for its assurance of French protection than from any special religious affinity. It is not at all improbable that at some future time they may sever their union with the Church of Rome and attach themselves to the Protestant community, under the charge of the American Board. The Copts are estimated to number about 250,000, and are located in Egypt. Many of them are very favorably disposed towards Protestantism, but they are excessively bigoted and hostile.

RELATION TO THE GOVERNMENT. One of the many anomalies which impress a stranger here, is the relation of the different religious communities to the Turkish Government. Every subject of the empire is assumed to have some form of religious faith. If a non-Muslim, he must be connected with some religious organization. The Greeks, the Armenians, the Jews, etc., as great religious bodies, have their duly authorized and recognized representatives, with whom alone the Government deals. If a private individual has a grievance, he must apply for redress through his priest or bishop. The prelates are therefore not only religious, but, to some extent, civil functionaries. This, of course, greatly increases their influence in their own communities, as the people are so dependent upon them. The position of a Protestant was formerly very embarrassing. Not claiming connection with either of the recognized sects, his relation to the Government was anomalous, and often annoying. As a remedy for this, several years ago, at the instance of Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, British ambassador, the twelve or fifteen thousand Protestants were constituted a distinct community, and thus entitled to a legal representation. This arrangement is not wholly satisfactory, and some Protestants prefer the inconveniences of non-representation to an enrollment in this form.—Christian Work.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS. BAPTIST. The Rochester Theological Seminary begins this year with fifty students, and more are expected. The Baptist Theological Seminary of Chicago is trying to raise $60,000 to purchase the library of the late Dr. Hengstenberg. A writer in the Louisiana Baptist says the 1700 colored Baptists in that State at the close of the war have increased since to 10,000. A revival at Love Lady Schoolhouse, N. C., resulted in thirty baptisms, and a proposition to build a house of worship, one gentleman offering five acres of land for a site. It is reported that Rev. John O. Sutherland, an evangelist laboring in the Mountain Associations of Kentucky, has baptized 378 into the fellowship of the churches in one year. Some writers referring to the statement that "of the 847 Baptist churches in Georgia, only 28 have preaching every Sunday," adds, "I presume there are not over 15 in Alabama, which have a weekly service." The prejudice in England against clerical celibacy is so great that the proposals in favor of sending out unmarried missionaries, made last May by Dr. Landels and by some of the managers of the Baptist Missionary Society, are almost universally repudiated by the denomination. As a consequence, one of the secretaries, Mr. Trestrail, resigns his post. The Christian Index publishes a note from a missionary among the Choctaws, which says: "According to recent statistics there are thirteen Baptist churches, and four hundred and sixty-seven members, in the Choctaw Nation; four native ordained (one died recently) and three native unordained preachers, and two white missionaries. Population of Choctaw Nation over 35,000; area, 15,000 square miles, I suppose."

METHODIST. The estimated value of Methodist Church property in Ontario, Seneca, and Wayne counties, N. Y. is $360,000. Parsonage property, $74,954. Membership, 8136. A meeting house was dedicated in Montana, Iowa, September 12. Cost, $4000, one at Barnsboro, N. J., September 10. Cost, $5500; and one at Wavelland, Ind., September 19. The recent Wesleyan General Conference, held in Hull, England, spent several hours discussing the case of a member who had written a book to show that attendance at class-meeting ought not to be rigidly enforced. Many were in favor of suspending him from the ministry; but a mild rebuke was all that finally prevailed. A young student of Harvard Divinity School, who had previously been a Methodist, says of the students whom he meets there—"I believe they are more devout and truly pious than the Methodist students I have known. In the conference meeting here there is more real heart-talk, more communion of the soul with God, and more moving expression of religious faith than I have found elsewhere, or expected to find here." An account of the Cartwright Semi-centennial Jubilee worthily fills a large space in the Methodist papers. The hero of the occasion is said to be one of the four famous Peters—Peter the Great, Peter the Hermit, Peter the Fisherman, and Peter the Martyr. The old veteran has been a Methodist preacher for 65 years, and has served for 50 years as Presiding Elder. His speech on the occasion of this festival was characteristic of the man—full of his rough humor. His wife is still living, after the rough experience of being 60 years of a travelling preacher's life. EPISCOPAL. The Episcopal clergy of this country have a mutual life insurance league, which is said to work very satisfactorily. Both the New York and Long Island Episcopal Conventions have met the past week. The latter was occupied mainly in discussing church extension, and in providing for the support of the clergy.—Presbyterian. The question of dividing the diocese fund, with the new dioceses was discussed and decided in the negative. In his address, Bishop Potter congratulated the Episcopal clergy on never having preached politics, and expressed a hope that some day a good religious paper might be started. The editor of the Chicago Churchman finds scarcely anything but Episcopalianism on his travels in the extreme West. He says:—"In Dakota there are only two other Protestant services besides our own in the whole territory! In Yankton, a town of fifteen hundred people, Dr. Hoyt, our missionary—the picket guard of the Church—has the only religious worship in the place! Everywhere throughout the jurisdiction the Church clergyman is the pioneer. We have beaten our Methodist brethren out of sight, and have generally run ahead of the Jesuits." It must be that the Congregational Church founded by Rev. E. W. Cook, and over which Rev. Joseph Ward was ordained a year ago, has evidently collapsed. We had supposed it prospering finely.—Judge. Dr. S. H. Tyng has written a letter to Drs. Mullenberg, J. Cotton Smith, Newton, and the remaining committee of Low Churchmen on the subject of revision of the Prayer Book, decidedly depreciating the project and refusing to aid in it. His idea that revision must either be limited to a few verbal changes and alternate forms, or else be so comprehensive as practically to give a new prayer book. If the first plan be agreed on, it will not pass the General Convention, and its adoption by any minister would render him liable to all the ecclesiastical censure that would follow a more radical course. Besides, such a partial revision would be in the way of anything more complete, and would not facilitate any subsequent meeting of the Convention. The alternative of a thorough revision would, he thinks, be premature, and to be attempted only when the body for which it is designed has been formed. He says:—"I have shrunk from such a prospect, I cannot resist the conviction that we are fast tending to an entire reconstruction of our ecclesiastical system. The avulsive action in our Church manifestly increases continually, both among the laity and clergy. I look forward to the next meeting of this autumn as an occasion at which we shall probably settle finally great principles of contest and action—either resulting in our separation or our submission—beyond which, for the present at least, we shall have no more discussion. That our brethren who dissent from the Prayer Book, hold a position, bolder heresy, is in my judgment not to be anticipated, or perhaps desired. I have no fears of the issue of such a movement, if it shall be conducted with calmness and determination, and with a most desire to see it successfully effected; though I should most desire to see the Church as it now stands prove faithful to the truth of God and to the liberty of Christ."

LUTHERAN. Mullenberg College has 120 students. Last year there were 46 ordained ministers in the Synod of Missouri. A meeting house was dedicated at Pleasant Gap, Centre county, Pa., August 15, and one at Bridgeton, N. J., September 26. The North Carolina Synod met in Salem, Aug. 26. One new church was added, a minister was ordained, and the licensed system was abolished. At the late meeting of the Missouri Synod, Professor Lindermann was re-elected editor of the Schuylkill, $45,000 was appropriated for building churches in the Synod. The Synod has missions among the Indians, the Hindus, and the Zulus of Africa. Concordia College has 160 students. The Synod will meet next in St. Louis in 1872. St. Andrew's Church, of this city (Rev. Dr. Storck, pastor), which has hitherto occupied a hall for meeting purposes, has secured a fine lot worth $60,000. Of this amount, $35,000 was presented by Rev. J. E. Graeff. A contiguous lot will bring from ten to fifteen thousand, and $15,000 has been subscribed. The crisis in the history of a struggling church has arrived, and they appeal for assistance to the amount of $30,000 to enable them to prepare the first story of the new building for occupancy.

CONGREGATIONAL. A church of eleven members was organized at Lamar, Barton county, Missouri, Sept. 20. A new house of worship, which will cost $125,000. Rev. John Woodbridge, D.D., for thirty-five years a Pastor in Hadley, Mass., died in Waukegan, Wis., September 20, aged 85 years. The Flower Church, Indianapolis, Indiana, which was organized May 28, with twelve members, now numbers forty-two, of whom five were received at the last communion. Mrs. Abner Wilcox died in Colbrook September 15, and was followed a week by her husband. They had been missionaries to the Hawaiian Islands for twenty-three years, returning to this country last July. Rev. H. W. Beecher's Church, Brooklyn, has secured in place of the communion service received in 1842, a new service, which includes the gospels and epistles with pure gold. They are also to have a new organ. The Christian Mirror, of Portland, Me., has had but three editors since its establishment, forty-seven years ago. Rev. A. W. Read, who is the most recent, was in Ashburnham, Mass., editor of its weekly issue; Rev. A. Cummings, who died in 1856, twenty-eight years; and Charles A. Lord, its present editor, is now entering upon his fourteenth year of labor. Olin Seminary has been lauded for several years. Professor Plimney was his best days thirty years ago—then he was a light. His influence was vast. But in common with all men of one idea, or of extreme views, he has succumbed. His favorite seminary has sunk down to the horizon. Some of the friends of the institution have rallied to its support, and are laboring to put it on high ground. For this end funds have been subscribed and new Professors elected.

PRESBYTERIAN. The Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Scottsville, Va., has received a call to the Nicholasville Church, Kentucky. The Rev. Dr. H. C. Alexander, of Charlotte county, Va., has been unanimously elected pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Lexington, Kentucky. The Central Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, New York, Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, pastor, received last Sabbath into its communion twenty-eight new members, making ninety-five added during the few months of the present pastorate. Professor Charles Phillips, of Davidson College, North Carolina, has declined the Presidency of Stewart College, in Tennessee, and a Professorship in the University of South Carolina, and has determined to remain in his present position. A correspondent of the Freeman's Journal says, on going into the Roman Catholic Church of Huntsville, Ala.:—"I was surprised at seeing an elderly man, with two youths, reciting the Profession of Faith of Philadelphia. There these were Rev. John Henry Irwin, a minister, lately of the Cumberland Presbyterian sect, and his two sons." On the evening of August 15th, the services of Zion's Church in Charleston, South Carolina, were peculiarly interesting. Six colored men, viz., Paul Trescott, Samuel Robinson, William Price, Jacky Morrissey, John Warren, and William Spencer, were ordained and installed as ruling elders. Between twenty-five and thirty of the colored people were present, while many went away because the densely crowded house could hold no more. The Rev. F. Beck Harbaugh has resigned the pastoral charge of the Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, at a meeting held on Monday, the 4th instant, dissolved the relation between Mr. Harbaugh and the Church. We are sorry to add another church to the list of those vacant within the limits of this city, and the thousand colored persons were present, while many went away because the densely crowded house could hold no more. be a speedy effort made to fill these vacant pulpits with earnest and devout ministers of truth.—Presbyterian. The Rev. Charles F. Mussey, who has resigned his charge at Batavia, is engaged getting up a colony to go with him to start a new town in Kansas. About twenty families are now pledged, and he hopes in a very short time to have fifty. He takes three elders out of the Presbyterian church of LeRoy. They expect to be able to organize a church, with some twenty or thirty members, at once. One of their number is quite competent to take the lead of their singing, having had experience in that line, and another has been a devoted and successful Sunday School superintendent. The following gratifying statement is made in last week's issue of the Presbyterian Banner:—"Last week we received a noble subscription of $25,000, for the endowment of a professorship in Western University, from a gentleman living in the bounds of the Presbytery of Columbus. This, with other amounts received this month, a little more than makes up the $250,000, which we were pledged to secure before the 1st of October, 1869." "GEORGE P. HAYS." DUTCH REFORMED. The friends and admirers of Rev. Charles Wadsworth, D. D., will be pleased to know that that eloquent minister of the gospel has returned among them, and at the call of the Third Reformed Church, Tenth and Filbert streets, has become its pastor. This congregation has, from this choice, as well as having secured the services of a professional choir ranking among the finest vocalists, given indications of zealous Christian enterprise. Services to-morrow at 10½ A. M. and 7½ P. M. CATHOLIC. The Irish Churchman informs its readers that five Roman Catholic priests have during the last month renounced the errors of their faith, and have been received into the Irish Church in Dublin. The Catholic Telegraph invokes "the contempt of all true Catholics" upon Mr. Carberry, Roman Catholic member of the Cincinnati School Board, for the expression of his opinion that many Catholics are anxious to patronize the public schools. Those of our readers who are lovers of the curious and beautiful should not fail to see the Missal or Catholic Mass Book on exhibition in the window of J. T. Gallagher's jewelry store, on Chesnut street, now being voted for at the fair held at Concert Hall, for the Church of St. Charles Borromeo. Every page is beautifully illuminated and printed in from two to five different colors, and is pronounced by competent judges the handsomest work of the kind in the United States. It was imported from Vienna, at a cost of about $100 in gold, and apart from its intrinsic value is the object of much competition amongst the various Catholic churches as to which shall possess it, one alone having deposited over $100 in votes.
